South Africa

sikhula sonke
growing together

On seeing poverty or environmental destruction, many people have taken the initiative and started projects to improve the lives of people and the environment. Every single day, these private initiatives work hard to make the world a better place. They are typically understaffed and poorly funded. We have travelled around South Africa and its neighbouring countries to visit many of these projects and have chosen the ones we loved in order to offer further support.

In choosing suitable projects, we apply strict criteria: They have been in operation for a number of years, they must have proven to follow a good cause, their financing needs to be transparent, they need to be in environments that are safe for international travellers and they must be organized to an extent that allows volunteers to easily participate.

If you put your trust into Good Hope Volunteers, we can assure you that you will volunteer at an established project that has proven to be suitable for volunteers and that provides a vital service to local communities and/or the environment.

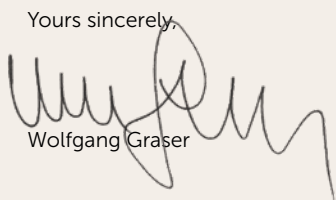

The more you give to the project, the more the project will give to you in return. There is so much to gain and learn from each other. Volunteering is not a one-way street: you will benefit as much as the project will benefit from you.

We have 24 years of experience in bringing young international travellers to South Africa and 10 years of experience in sending volunteers into projects. As a local provider we pride ourselves on being personally involved and knowing the ins and outs of all our projects.

This brochure intends to give you an overview of all our projects. Follow your heart. Whichever project you love most is the best project to support. The rest you can leave up to us. We will organise an experience of a lifetime for you, from fetching you from the airport, to your accommodation, your tasks at the project and what you can do during your spare time until we bring you back to the airport.

We look forward to getting to know you and to supporting you through this experience.

Yours sincerely,

Wolfgang Graser

Join us and become a Good Hope Volunteer

Be passionate about a cause

All of our projects provide services vital to the communities and the environment in which they are based. Volunteers play an integral part in the services offered, and your help is needed! A portion of your fee goes towards the upliftment of the community or project you work at as well as your passion to serve, so you get to leave Africa knowing you have made a difference!

Anyone can get involved

We have selected and developed projects located in environments that are suited to all, whether you are a tourist, a solo traveller, a student, or coming as a family. We offer everything from budget experiences to premium projects. All you need in order to apply is a good command of the English language and be at least 18 years of age. Our projects attract volunteers from dozens of different countries, allowing you to make life-long friends from across the globe.

We will find the right project for you

Applying to Good Hope Volunteers is free! Allow us to walk you through our application process to best determine which projects will be most suitable for your goals and needs.

We come highly recommended

For over 20 years, the Good Hope brand has been creating experiences and supporting students and volunteers from all over the world. We have been actively involved in changing the lives of thousands of students embarking on the adventure of a lifetime through meaningful travel in southern Africa. Read through some of our many testimonials to see for yourself!

We offer a wide variety of project options

We offer projects in South Africa, Namibia and Botswana. The experiences range from community-driven social projects to those that focus on environmental and conservation initiatives. Wherever your passions lie, Good Hope Volunteers will match you up with the right project at a fair cost.

We are passionate about volunteering

We are an experienced and motivated team with years of practice operating and travelling throughout southern Africa. We are small and flexible enough to meet your personal needs but also large enough to offer you a full range of support services. We will be on hand to help you every step of the way, from visas to airport transfers, accommodation options to advice and around-the-clock on-the-ground support.

Cape Town, South Africa
from 18 years
your impact: ♥♥♥♥♥

from 2 weeks
mid Jan to mid Dec

This is a voluntary support group to South Africa's largest children's hospital. It seeks to provide assistance and care for the patients and their families. The project is committed to helping make the hospital experience less traumatic for the young patients that are treated there. Your main task will be to entertain the children and help them forget that they are patients.

Community Children's Project

near Plettenberg Bay, South Africa
from 18 years
your impact: ♥♥♥♥♥

from 2 weeks
mid Jan to mid Dec

Work in a rural township community on the Garden Route where you will support children from the ages of 2 to 6. Volunteers provide basic day care and assistance with daily developmental programmes. This project requires lots of hands-on work, both in the classroom and outdoors.

Hout Bay Children's Programmes

Hout Bay near Cape Town, South Africa
from 18 years
your impact: ♥♥♥♥♥

from 4 weeks
Feb to Nov

This project caters for the children in a developing community near Hout Bay. As a volunteer, you spend mornings caring for young children while their parents are at work. Afternoons are spent in an aftercare programme that assists older children with their homework and creative activities once school has finished. Meals are also provided daily for all the children.

Jeffrey's Bay Kindergarten

Jeffrey's Bay, South Africa
from 18 years
your impact: ♥♥♥♥♥

from 4 weeks
during school terms

The project centres around a nursery school for disadvantaged children. The project provides education and stimulation and relies on basic aids to teach the children and provide an educational experience for them. Located in Jeffrey's Bay, you will have the opportunity to have fun on the beach and enjoy surfing in your spare time.

Cape Town, South Africa
from 18 years
your impact: ♥♥♥♥♥

from 2 - 12 weeks
mid Jan to mid Dec

Volunteers joining this multipurpose facility can assist with education and social welfare programmes as well as outreach work focused on health and economic development by supporting mainly children and women. Tasks include helping in the kitchen, gardening, playing and more. This project is set in Nyanga, a township in Cape Town where the need is great.

Protecting Children

Plettenberg Bay, South Africa
from 21 years
your impact: ♥♥♥♥♥

from 2 weeks
mid Jan to mid Dec

Caring and loving volunteers help the staff at this unique organisation empower vulnerable children, who were potential or actual street children. The focus is to provide quality education and developmental programmes so that children reach their full potential and grow to become leaders in their communities.

Rural Schools Project

Port St Johns, South Africa
from 18 years
your impact: ♥♥♥♥♥

from 2 weeks
Jan to Nov

This project offers community support through a number of projects in and around a small coastal town in the heart of the beautiful Wild Coast. They support a pre-primary and a secondary school as well as youth centres and shops. Their vision is to recognise the needs of the local community and to provide support for self-empowerment and more.

Safe Haven

Cape Town, South Africa
from 18 years
your impact: ♥♥♥♥♥

from 2 weeks
all year round

This organization supports children and their immediate family in a dignified and compassionate manner and also provides a safe haven for abandoned and abused children. Volunteers join a variety of projects supported by the organization during their experience. For this project it is important to be flexible and take initiative.

Social volunteering

This centre exists for a small number of the many marginalized people in the Cape community and provides specialized care for 90 profoundly intellectually and physically disabled citizens. Participate in group and stimulation activities, help with meals and organise events. Make a real difference in the life of someone who needs it most!

Use sport to provide children and at-risk youths in Namibia with valuable skills and opportunities. Volunteers with any interest in sport and development can make a big difference and inspire the champions of tomorrow. Staying in Windhoek allows you to discover this city and its surrounding treasures.

This programme teaches surfing to underprivileged youth from a rural area. Surfing keeps them out of trouble and away from drugs by giving them support to develop. Volunteers learn to surf and at the same time teach kids to surf; assist with beach games, yoga, and swimming lessons; and help with after-school homework.

This is an early intervention literacy programme. It supports children who are at risk in learning to read. To do this, the programme focuses on language enrichment, offering extra help and remedial assistance to children. This project runs during school hours but volunteers can choose to assist directly in the school as well.

This unique urban farming project will allow you to experience sustainable farming, education, and health promotion. The project encourages change in the way the public sees food production and purchasing and also teaches the community where our food really comes from, and how it can benefit the families that live here.

Through skateboarding, this project brings together people from diverse backgrounds. Skateboarding gives rural and vulnerable youths self-esteem and pride. It keeps them off the streets and out of trouble and brings them a sense of freedom, possibility and purpose.

Our story

In 1994, Wolfgang Graser and Alexander Kratochwil moved from their home in Vienna to the beautiful city of Cape Town. They quickly fell in love with this vibrant city and its friendly, smiling people. They first opened an English language school for foreign tourists to learn English, but soon they discovered that behind the shiny places there are enormous problems and challenges that this country faces for historic reasons. They met with organisations that assist government in the struggle for a better life and a better environment.

When you see what these organisations do, it's not difficult to feel moved and share in their desire to help. They can't solve all problems overnight, but they do make an impact and do change people's lives on a daily basis. What they need, though, are volunteers who share their passion to help and who want to make a difference.

In 2009 we started to supply some of these organisations with international volunteers. What we specifically loved was not only to seeing these organisations thrive with the volunteers, but also noticing how the volunteers themselves benefit hugely from the experience.

In 2016, Vanessa Randon joined us to develop Good Hope Volunteers into a larger and more professional organisation. She holds an undergraduate degree in Marine Biology and a postgraduate degree in Physical Oceanography from the University of Cape Town. With her passion for communities, animals and the environment, she has developed Good Hope Volunteers to a top service provider in this field.

It is our passion for positively impacting both South Africa and the international travellers that pushes us daily to provide the best possible meaningful experience for our volunteers, while supporting our projects with what they need to do their jobs and to grow into a brighter future.

Today we support around 40 projects in southern Africa. If you are looking for a life-changing experience, then allow us to assist you in finding the most suitable project on our website and beyond.

Conservation volunteering

African Cat Sanctuary

Standford, South Africa
from 18 years
your impact: ♥♥♥♥♥

2 - 12 weeks
all year round

This sanctuary creates a safe and secure home for captive-bred big cats and raises awareness about the ethical and holistic treatment of animals. This 40-hectare paradise provides a beautiful home for the animals, and volunteers are involved in their day-to-day care and protection as well as the education of the public.

African Horizon

Thornhill, South Africa
from 17 years
your impact: ♥♥♥♥♥

from 2 weeks
all year round

Most animals brought here are either orphaned baby animals or seriously injured adults who will be cared for at the sanctuary for a lifetime. Where possible, they are released back into their natural habitat. Situated on the Garden Route, the project is well located for exploring this unique terrain or doing a variety of sports in your free time.

Centre for Endangered Species

closest town: Hoedspruit, South Africa
from 18 years
your impact: ♥♥♥♥♥

3 weeks
specific dates

This facility is dedicated to the survival of rare, vulnerable and endangered species, particularly rhinos and cheetahs. The programme aims to equip volunteers with the ability to actively participate in the conservation of wildlife in the Kruger National Park area. Some days will be set aside for included excursions.

Domestic Animal Shelter

Hout Bay near Cape Town, South Africa
from 18 years
your impact: ♥♥♥♥♥

from 2 weeks
all year round

This centre is a pro-life, nonprofit organisation whose core aim is to rescue, rehabilitate, re-union and re-home lost, abandoned, abused and neglected dogs and cats. Volunteers make a marked difference to the lives of the animals here and need to have patience and a deep love for the work they will do.

Game Reserve Conservation

Mossel Bay, South Africa
from 18 years
your impact: ♥♥♥♥♥

from 2 weeks
mid Jan to mid Dec

This project aims to return this land along the beautiful Garden Route to its natural state and ensure a self-sustaining, functional ecosystem by rehabilitating agricultural land, expanding the reserve, and creating community awareness. Volunteers take part in research on various wildlife species and essential hands-on conservation work.

The Forgotten Five

Outjo, Namibia
from 18 years
your impact: ♥♥♥♥♥

from 2 weeks
all year round

This organization specializes in research, rescue, rehabilitation, and release of animals. Their primary focus is the "Forgotten Five" which are the cape griffon vulture, cape pangolin, Damara dik-dik, spotted rubber frog, and dwarf python. However, they will accept any animal indigenous to Namibia that needs help. The goal is to always rehabilitate and release these animals where possible.

Wildlife Conservation

closest town: Windhoek, Namibia
from 18 years
your impact: ♥♥♥♥♥

2 - 12 weeks
all year round

This project provides a safe haven for orphaned and injured African wildlife. Efforts are directed to long-term rehabilitation. Volunteers play an important role in caring for and feeding animals as well as helping with daily tasks at the sanctuary. This may be combined with supporting San children at a local school.

Wildlife and Bird Sanctuary

Hout Bay near Cape Town, South Africa
from 18 years
your impact: ♥♥♥♥♥

from 2 weeks
all year round

This incredible sanctuary on Cape Town's doorstep offers rehabilitation and a home to over 400 species of birds and small animals. The organisation is underfunded and understaffed and volunteers make a valuable difference to the animals that call this centre home. There are more than 100 spacious landscaped walk-through aviaries, allowing intimate closeness with nature.

Wildlife Research Project

Mossel Bay, South Africa
from 18 years
your impact: ♥♥♥♥♥

from 2 weeks
all year round

This programme provides a great opportunity to get involved in the conservation and sustainability of African wildlife and ecosystems. Not only are volunteers directly involved in protecting and studying African wildlife and ecosystems but they also undergo educational sessions where the focus is on teaching the bigger picture.

Combined social & conservation volunteering

Cape Nature Conservation

Muizenberg, South Africa
from 18 years
your impact: ♥♥♥♥♥

from 2 weeks
all year round

Volunteer at a reserve that aims to promote the conservation of the indigenous fauna and flora of the Zandvlei wetland in Muizenberg. The programme is very broad and every day will be filled with a new adventure. Interact with people from across Africa and make a difference in the conservation of the reserve.

Community & Wilderness Outreach

Tuli Block, Botswana
from 18 years
your impact: ♥♥♥♥♥

from 4 weeks
mid Jan to mid Dec

This is a unique project that focuses on building relationships between communities, families, and the animals and owners of game reserves in rural Botswana. It also offers support programmes and educational outreach activities in the hopes of bridging the delicate gap between all members of this unique environment.

Conservation & Community

Paterson, South Africa
from 18 years
your impact: ♥♥♥♥♥

from 2 weeks
all year round

This project offers a rare opportunity to combine community development and environmental protection. Volunteers will work directly with children from a local care facility as well as support environmental conservation efforts on a working game reserve.

Ocean Conservation

Plettenberg Bay, South Africa
from 18 years
your impact: ♥♥♥♥♥

from 2 weeks
mid Jan to mid Nov

This foundation is dedicated to the conservation of the marine environment in South Africa through research, willingness to help, and dedication. You can make a real change for the future of South Africa's beautiful coastline and at the same time enjoy seeing whales, dolphins, seals and seabirds in their natural habitat.

Ms Vanessa Randon, Product and Sales Manager at Good Hope Volunteers:
"Ever since I was a little girl I have loved this country, my home, our people, and have always had a desperate passion for the environment. As I grew older, and travelled more of Africa, I realised that I had a unique responsibility to share my love and passion with as many people as I possibly could. I truly believe that each and every person has a chance to make a difference to our world, and we have the opportunity to initiate a positive change in our lives. I care deeply about every volunteer experience and believe that what Good Hope Volunteers does is remarkable. I am privileged to be a part of this team, and hope more and more people come to Africa, to learn, grow and discover who they are and what they are capable of."

Farm stays

Family Dairy Farm Experience

near Plettenberg Bay, South Africa
from 18 years

2 - 12 weeks
all year round

The farm is a family-run dairy farm that has successfully grown from its original mixed-agriculture and milk production activities to a highly popular farmstall and coffee shop offering a wide assortment of produce for retail and in-house consumption, plus an established horticultural seedling and plant retail nursery.

Wine Farm Experience

near Plettenberg Bay, South Africa
from 18 years

2 - 12 weeks
all year round

This farm is a family-run boutique wine estate that has successfully grown in size and reputation since 2008. They also assist the historically disadvantaged local community by constantly helping community members to participate in the local economy. Medical volunteering

Medical Project

Omaheke region, eastern Namibia
from 18 years
your impact: ♥♥♥♥♥

2 - 12 weeks
mid Jan to mid Dec

The project is committed to improving the lives of the San community through education, health care and improved living conditions. You will assist the clinic staff in providing primary health-care to locals. The project is a great choice for volunteers with an interest in health care, community service, nutrition and medicine.

Voluntourism

These beautiful animals have spent the majority of their lives in cruel and unjust hands. Now they are able to spend the remainder of their time in peace along the Garden Route. A magical project for all horse and animals lovers. No previous experience is necessary. Enjoy this unique way to see this part of South Africa on horseback.

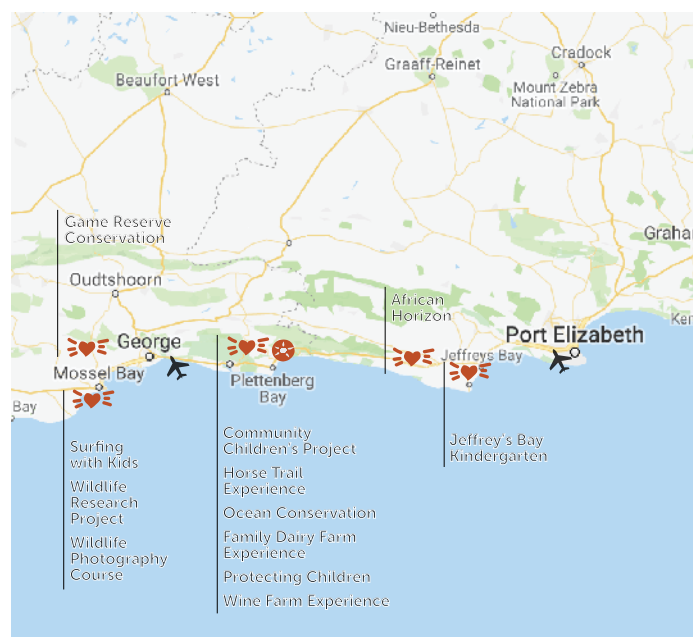

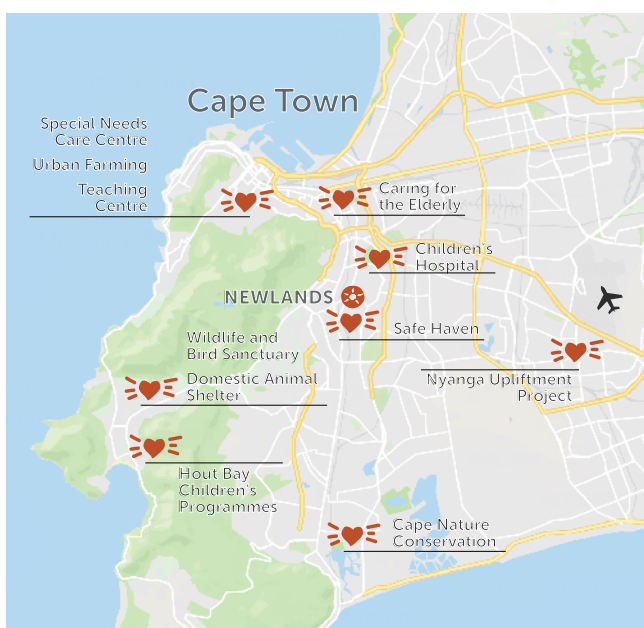

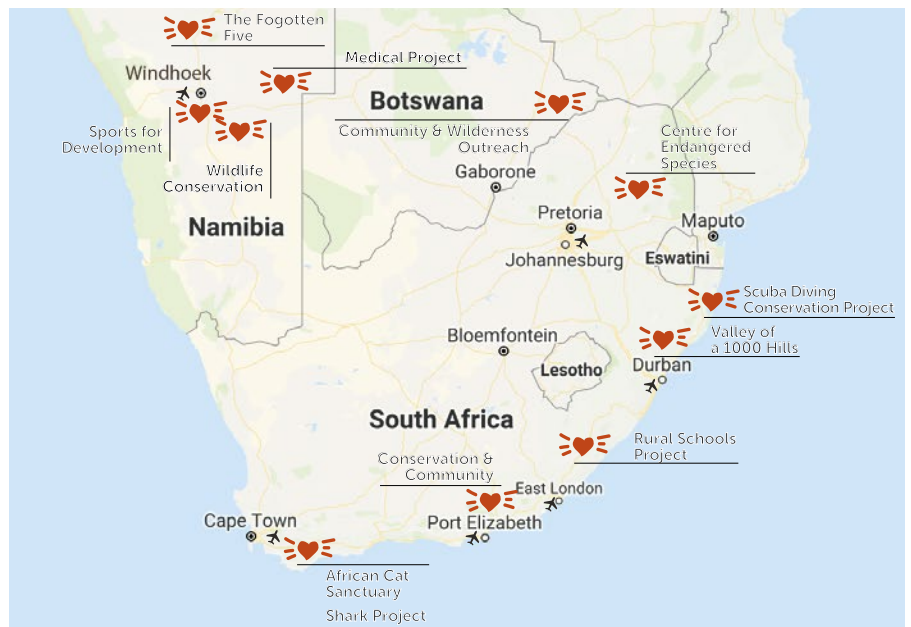

Those who can't dive will have a dive course first. Volunteers dive every day during the week in the morning, collecting photographic data on turtles, mantas, whales and ragged-tooth sharks. Later in the day, the collected data is entered into database. For marine research efforts, marine lectures provide a deeper insight on ocean conservation.

An ocean-based project which aims to unite scientific research and public participation in the protection of South Africa's great white shark. Volunteers are primarily here to work closely with sharks and tourists. In doing so, they increase awareness of these wonderful creatures. You get involved in ocean conservation, shark wound healing, tagging and tracking.

A one-week photography course that focuses on applying learned photography skills to real-world conservation situations and wildlife experiences. Participants live at beach-side accommodation and spend five of the seven days taking photographs and applying their skills on a free-roaming wildlife reserve.

Combine volunteering with a language course

Agency Stamp

When you volunteer, it is essential that you are able to communicate clearly with your supervisor, colleagues and the people you are helping. A good command of English is therefore required for all projects.

If you need to brush up on your English skills, add a language course before you start volunteering. Doing this will also give you a chance to get accustomed to the country before you start at your project.

Our sister company, Good Hope Studies, operates an English language school from two campuses in Cape Town: one campus is situated in the leafy residential area of Newlands and the other is in the vibrant city centre on a pedestrian walkway.

We offer short-term and long-term programmes for General English as well as exam preparation courses, business courses and a teacher training centre.

Our school is well-known for the professional yet relaxed environment in which learning is both challenging and fun. Students from up to 50 different countries benefit from our courses each year.
